

Video Number	Name	Description	Length (approx.)	Instructor	Written Material on Website?
1997-02	Credibility 1997	In this seminar, participants examine what adjudicators believe and why, exploring the basic assumptions underlying fact finding.	80	Lawrence Geller & Peter Hemenway	N
2002-02	Credibility of Witnesses	This seminar considers demeanor evidence in determining credibility of witnesses in the fact-finding process.	30	Prof. Gregory Ogden, Pepperdine University School of Law	N
2023-03	Using Demeanor Evidence to Determine Facts	This session discusses the nature, history, and use of demeanor evidence to determine witness credibility in fact-finding by administrative adjudicators, analyzes credibility determinations involving demeanor evidence in the written decisions of adjudicators, and examines the use of demeanor evidence using hypotheticals drawn from administrative hearings.	60	Gregory Ogden, Professor, Pepperdine Univ. School of Law	Y